

Outsourcing Analysis

Seems like everybody's doing it....But is outsourcing always the answer?

Committed Partner. Creating Results.

Increased productivity. Lower costs. Outsourcing has the potential to sharpen a company's competitive edge. But is it right for you? And, if so, how do you go about clearing hurdles such as:

- ◆ The cultural barrier to outsourcing business functions
- ◆ Changes in business processes
- ◆ The reduction of in-house expertise around business processes
- ◆ Concern about quality of service
- ◆ Risk of losing customer or other proprietary information

CC Pace's Outsourcing Analysis is an objective, vendor-neutral, proven plan of action — custom-tailored to your business needs — that explores all the possibilities of outsourcing. Our experienced analysts get you the answers by:

- ◆ Determining your specific strategy for outsourcing
- ◆ Documenting current processes, metrics, costs, projections, and goals for the function
- ◆ Identifying what, if any, processes will not be outsourced
- ◆ Conducting thorough market research and analysis of potential outsourcing partners
- ◆ Defining measurable service level agreement standards for use with your outsourcing partner
- ◆ Providing a scorecard for rating outsourcing vendors
- ◆ Analyzing your risk factors, costs and benefits

CC Pace's Outsourcing Analysis empowers your company with all the intelligence you will need to cut costs and get back to focusing on your core objectives... confidently.
