Ashok Komaragiri Promoted to Director of DevOps

April 14, 2021 (Fairfax, VA) – CC Pace announces the promotion of Ashok Komaragiri to the position of Director, DevOps. In this position, Mr. Komaragiri will lead CC Pace’s new DevOps practice.

Mr. Komaragiri joined CC Pace 11 years ago and has devoted the bulk of his career to developing and honing his skills in DevOps. He has worked with several major clients on their DevOps efforts, most recently with the National Center for Biotechnology Information (NCBI) at the National Institutes of Health (NIH). His promotion to Director of a new practice reflects his success at helping such clients, as well as a recognition that DevOps is a technology capability that offers immense value to these and other clients.

CC Pace’s DevOps practice, under Mr. Komaragiri’s leadership, will specialize in technologies such as automated deployment to cloud environments, container orchestration, serverless deployments to public cloud infrastructures, and much more.

“I’m thrilled to be turning over the leadership of this critical area of our technology strategy and capability to Ashok,” said CC Pace’s CTO, Kuryan Thomas. “His passion for and competence in DevOps form the perfect combination to help our clients take full advantage of this exciting new area of cloud engineering.”

CC Pace is nationally recognized as a leader in Healthcare and Financial Services consulting, with a focus on providing digital services, Agile transformation, and business consulting. Headquartered in Fairfax, Virginia, CC Pace is a privately held firm, serving both commercial and government clients.
